Major Expenditure Reforms have been undertaken by the Government over the last few years. This not only includes simplification of appraisal and approval processes, but also structural changes in the process of budget making itself, like doing away with Plan / Non-plan distinction. As a result, the cost-centres are being treated in an integrated manner, within only the statutory revenue capital framework. This enables another major structural reform, which is to bring the public schemes and projects under a monitorable Output-Outcome framework.

BEE provides information about the Central Sector Schemes (CSS) based on the format prescribed for Outcome Output Monitoring Framework (OOMF) to the NITI Aayog through M/o Power on a quarterly basis.
