

“It is much more economical to conserve power, than to produce power.”

Narendra Modi
Prime Minister of India

National Energy Conservation Day 2015

Shri Piyush Goyal

Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Power, Coal & New & Renewable Energy

will inaugurate the Energy Conservation Day function and present the National Energy Conservation Awards and the National Painting Competition Prizes

on Monday, 14th December, 2015

at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi

Savings by the participating units in the Energy Conservation Awards Electrical Savings : 2598MU Avoided Capacity : 486 MW

More than 1 crore school children participated in the Painting competition all over the country

MINISTRY OF POWER
Government of India www.powermin.nic.in

BUREAU OF ENERGY EFFICIENCY (BEE)
(Ministry of Power, Government of India) Website: www.beeindia.gov.in

To take advantage of EESL's special scheme visit: www.delp.in